

Indirect Objects

Name: _____ Date: _____

Write the direct and indirect objects from each sentence.

(1) Andrew served Erin a plate of his spicy lasagna.

Direct object: _____

Indirect object: _____

(2) The woman showed the police the damage done to her car.

Direct object: _____

Indirect object: _____

(3) The math teacher is giving his students a pop quiz.

Direct object: _____

Indirect object: _____

(4) Broadcast television offers viewers a choice of entertainment.

Direct object: _____

Indirect object: _____

(5) Has Maria shown Brandon and Steven her new jacket?

Direct object: _____

Indirect object: _____

(6) Can Ashley get the boys tickets for Saturday's big game?

Direct object: _____

Indirect object: _____

Underline the direct object. Double-underline the indirect object.

(7) The man on the corner gave Thomas and me some misleading directions.

(8) The tired waitress is serving the hungry customers healthy meals.

(9) A violinist played the couple a romantic tune at the fancy restaurant.

(10) The actor showed his guests a video of his finest work.

(11) The famous actor wrote the little girl a lengthy response.

(12) The confused clerk finally gave me the correct change.

(13) Did the lady leave the waiter a tip as she left?

(14) The limousine driver paid my wife and me a compliment.

Indirect Objects

ANSWER KEY

Write the direct and indirect objects from each sentence.

(1) Andrew served Erin a plate of his spicy lasagna.

Direct object: lasagna

Indirect object: Erin

(2) The woman showed the police the damage done to her car.

Direct object: damage

Indirect object: police

(3) The math teacher is giving his students a pop quiz.

Direct object: quiz

Indirect object: students

(4) Broadcast television offers viewers a choice of entertainment.

Direct object: choice

Indirect object: viewers

(5) Has Maria shown Brandon and Steven her new jacket?

Direct object: jacket

Indirect object: Brandon and Steven

(6) Can Ashley get the boys tickets for Saturday's big game?

Direct object: tickets

Indirect object: boys

Underline the direct object. Double-underline the indirect object.

(7) The man on the corner gave Thomas and me some misleading directions.

(8) The tired waitress is serving the hungry customers healthy meals.

(9) A violinist played the couple a romantic tune at the fancy restaurant.

(10) The actor showed his guests a video of his finest work.

(11) The famous actor wrote the little girl a lengthy response.

(12) The confused clerk finally gave me the correct change.

(13) Did the lady leave the waiter a tip as she left?

(14) The limousine driver paid my wife and me a compliment.